When The Unforeseen Happens, You're Covered

Congratulations! You've Chosen A Fine Apartment To Call Home

Now, make it a place where you can really rest easy by adding peace of mind and protection with Renters Insurance Select. So no matter what the future holds, your possessions and your financial future will be well protected.

The Complete, Convenient And Affordable Solution

Renters Insurance Select provides one policy that includes the two types of coverage every renter needs for complete protection. Contents coverage protects what you own. Resident liability covers accidental damage to the property of others – including your landlord.

Renters Insurance Select – One Policy, Two Components

Contents Coverage

- 1 When your possessions are damaged or stolen your contents coverage reimburses you, up to policy terms and limits.
- 2 If you don't have contents insurance, it may be difficult to get compensated for loss of any or all of your possessions.
- 3 Your landlord's insurance typically provides no coverage for your possessions.

Resident Liability Coverage

- 1 Liability insurance covers damage you cause to the apartment structure, the community, or other residents due to perils specified in the policy.
- 2 Residents who cause damage and are not covered for liability exposure could be responsible for thousands of dollars in damage.
- 3 It's your responsibility – not your landlord's – to pay for accidental damages you may cause.
- 4 When accidents happen, our liability coverage takes care of it, up to the policy limits.

Contents and liability insurance are both essential for complete protection of apartment occupants; just as seat belts and air bags are both essential for complete protection of vehicle occupants.
